

In dieser E-mail an Jacob Pape berichtet die Schulleiterin der Narumu Secondary School über die Planung des neuen Gebäudes:

Sent: Sat, July 9, 2011 1:19:42 PM

Dear Jacob ;

Thank you very much for your encourage letter and good communication which you have done to me through mobile phone. May God bless you . TODAY in my school we have electrical LIGHT SO I Can READ the message which you sent it to me instead of going to 18 kilometers in the town from the school. Thank you for understand the problem which is in my new school. I have also meet with parents of the students and they were very happy and they promised to help me by try what ever they can do to collect their own money for build the stuff quarters . The bishop also promised to look a proper area for build the house and give us a firm contractor who will guide and inspect the buildings. Jacob If it is God wishes one day you will come i n Tanzania and visit this small school which is in the poor village and you will see the use of money which you will send to us soon. I have so many things which I want to do for the sake of my poor students and poor parents around my school but I don't have money. I hope God will guide me on how to solve this problems and I believe God will give me more benefactors like you. Thanks again and again for speak with to me by your phone . God will reward you. Well come in Tanzania . Please. Yours sincerely, fulkweka Sr. Fulgensia Kweka